ARSON INVESTIGATION - MODESTO, CALIFORNIA

Planned
Parenthood
Clinic (Post-Repair)

DETAILS

The FBI and local law enforcement authorities in Stanislaus County, California, are seeking information regarding the arson of a woman's health clinic in Modesto. On May 25, 2016, at approximately 3:30 a.m., local police and fire department officials responded to a fire alarm at the Planned Parenthood Clinic located at 1431 McHenry Avenue in Modesto. Although the fire suppression system inside the building extinguished the flames, the entry and façade of the building sustained substantial fire damage. Approximately one third of the building also sustained water damage. Subsequent investigation at the scene indicated an incendiary device had been thrown through the clinic's glass front doors.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $2,500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the arson.
