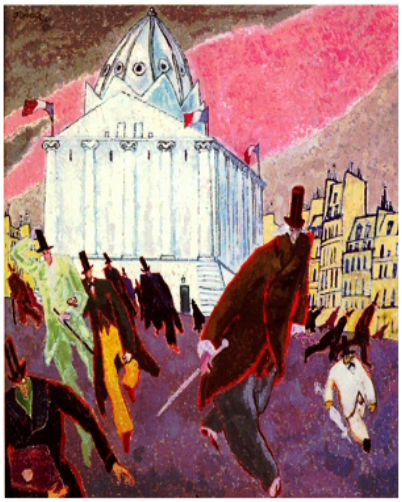
SEEKING INFORMATION

ART THEFT RECOVERY INVESTIGATION
Encino, California

Figur mit Hund, Emil Nolde, circa 1912, signed lower right corner, oil on canvas, 31 5/8” x 27 9/16”, unframed

La Femme en Rouge, Chaim Soutine, circa 1926, signed lower right, oil on canvas, 29 7/8” x 21 3/4”, unframed



Fin de Seance, Lyonel Feininger, circa 1910, signed and dated upper left corner, oil on canvas, 37 3/8” x 33 3/4”, framed

La Vielle Dame au Chien, Chaim Soutine, circa 1919, no signature noted, oil on canvas, 36 1/4” x 25 5/8”, unframed

Portrait of Alicia Alanova, Keis Van Dongen, circa 1933, signed lower right, oil on canvas, 25 5/8” x 21 1/2”, unframed, but with the original inner liner still secured to the stretcher

Mexican Peasant, Diego Rivera, circa 1938, signed and dated lower left, water-based media on paper, 14 7/8” x 10 3/8”, framed

Le Paysans, Marc Chagall, circa 1976, signed lower right, watercolor, gouache, and ink on paper, 24” x 18 1/2”, framed

Blue Bottle, Hans Hofmann, 1947, signed and dated lower right corner, 49 3/4” x 62 1/8”, unframed

Cubist Still Life, Arshile Gorky, circa 1928-1929, unsigned, oil on canvas, 22 1/8” x 15 1/8”, framed

The FBI is offering a $25,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individual or group responsible for the residential theft, in 2008, of multiple works of art in the city of Encino, California. These works of art were recovered on October 23, 2014.

If you have any information concerning this case, please contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.

Field Office: Los Angeles