DETAILS

The FBI is seeking information in connection with the murder of Theresa M. Dashewich.

On June 17, 2014, at approximately 5 p.m., Dashewich was discovered beaten to death and left in a culvert off of Interstate 90 (I-90) near mile marker 172 (about two hours east of Rapid City, South Dakota), near Kadoka, South Dakota. Dashewich was held against her will, possibly in a large vehicle.

On June 13, 2014, at approximately 10 p.m., Dashewich was observed at the Town Pump gas station in Billings, Montana. She was wearing a gray t-shirt, navy sweatpants, white tennis shoes, and carried a duffel bag. Later that night, she left the Town Pump gas station and walked to the nearby Flying J truck stop in Billings, Montana. Dashewich spent several hours at the Flying J truck stop between June 13-14, 2014.

On June 14, 2014, at about 5:00 a.m., Dashewich was observed on the Flying J truck stop property talking to truck drivers. A person resembling Dashewich was observed at approximately 8 a.m. walking away from the Flying J toward the eastbound 1-90 on-ramp.

Dashewich's whereabouts between June 14, 2014, at 5 a.m. and June 17, 2014, at 5 p.m. are unknown. At the time Dashewich's body was located in Kadoka, South Dakota, she was wearing a gray Adidas Harlem Globetrotters t-shirt, navy sweatpants, and socks. Her shoes and duffel bag have not been located.

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to an arrest in the murder of Theresa M. Dashewich.
